MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU)

BETWEEN

SRI RAAJA RAAJAN COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY,
AMARAVATHIPUTHUR, KARAISKUDI

AND

SMP IT & ITS SOLUTIONS, PUDUKKOTTAI

Preface

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING, hereinafter called MoU is arrived at between Sri Raaja Raajan College of Engineering and Technology, Amaravathiputhur, Karaikudi, Tamil Nadu, India, hereinafter referred to as SRR CET and SMP IT & ITS SOLUTIONS, Pudukkottai, Tamil Nadu, India, hereinafter referred to as SMPIT. This MoU aims at promoting mutual interest through co-operation in the areas of Training & Development, Testing, Consultancy, Research and Development, on the basis of equality and mutual benefits.

1.0 Justification

Industries make huge investments to apply technology in manufacturing products or offering services while educational institutions make considerable investments to create a learning base for Engineers / Technocrats. While the institutions keep pace with technological innovations to make their courses current and relevant, the industries identify the scope for fine tuning the basic technologies to make them application oriented. If the resources and expertise of these two entities are pooled and made accessible to Faculty members and Students of institutions on the one end and the workforce, Engineers and Managers of industries on the other hand, the industries and the institutions will be immensely benefited through continuous updating of Technology, consolidation of learning base and applied research work that in turn will result in continuously enhancing the quality of output of both the institution and industry.

AND
LAYAM GROUP, CHENNAI

Preface

This MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING, hereinafter called MoU is arrived at between Department of Mechanical Engineering, Sri Raaja Raajan College of Engineering and Technology, Amaravathiputhur, Karaikudi, Tamil Nadu, India, hereinafter referred to as SRR CET(ME) and Layam Group, Adyar, Chennai, Tamil Nadu, India, hereinafter referred to as LG. This MoU aims at promoting mutual interest through co-operation in the areas of Training & Development, Testing, Consultancy, Research & Development, and Technology Development on the basis of equality and mutual benefits.

1.0 Justification

Industries make huge investments to apply technology in manufacturing products or offering services while educational institutions make considerable investments to create a learning base for Engineers / Technocrats. While the institutions keep pace with technological innovations to make their courses current and relevant, the industries identify the scope for fine tuning the basic technologies to make them application oriented. If the resources and expertise of these two entities are pooled and made accessible to Faculty members and Students of institutions on the one end and the workforce, Engineers and Managers of industries on the other hand, the industries and the institutions will be immensely benefited through continuous updating of Technology, consolidation of learning base and applied research work that in turn will result in continuously enhancing the quality of output of both the institution and industry.

2.0 Objectives

- To facilitate students of SRR CET(ME) to undertake In-Plant Training (IPT) in LG.
- To provide industry exposure to students through Industrial Visits (IV)
