ALUMINI MEET (2024-25)

Gift presented by our alumni

The report describes a kind and thoughtful gesture made by two alumni, Ms. Aruna Devi and Ms. Suba Sowkiya, who completed their graduation in the Electronics and Communication Engineering (ECE) department. On the day of their graduation, they gifted a set of academic books to the Vice Principal as a token of gratitude to the institution that supported their learning journey. These books, which had been useful to them during their studies, were donated with the intention of helping their juniors in academics and exam preparation. Their donation reflects not only a sense of appreciation but also a genuine desire to contribute to the academic growth of current students. The staff members received their gesture with appreciation and assured that the books would be preserved properly and made available in the department for student use. The report emphasizes that such actions by alumni are highly valued, as they inspire a culture of giving back and staying connected with the institution even after graduation.

ALUMINI MEET

Gift presented by our alumna Ms. Atchaya

Ms. Atchaya, a passed-out student from the Department of Computer Science and Engineering, presented a set of academic books as a gift to the Dean on the day of her graduation. The gesture was made as a mark of appreciation for the guidance and support she received throughout her academic journey. The gifted books were selected based on their relevance and usefulness in the CSE curriculum, with the hope that they would benefit her juniors in their academic preparations. The Dean warmly received the gift and expressed appreciation for her thoughtfulness. The books will be placed in the department's resource collection for student use. This meaningful contribution reflects Ms. Atchaya's gratitude and continued connection to the institution. Such gestures by alumni are truly valued and help strengthen the bond between past and present students.
